

FAQ'S

How many guests do I need to be considered a function?

We consider functions to be for groups of 20 or more.

Is there a special function menu available?

Sure is! Our function menu includes canapé options, grazing platters and substantial as has many options for varying types of dietary requirements. Submit an enquiry online to receive a copy of our menu.

Can I order off the al-la-carte menu?

We would recommend you avoid ordering from the al-la-carte menu. We have created a wonderful function menu for you to pre-order from. This is so your event will be catered to and served as priority on the day/night of your event.

Can I bring my own cake?

Yes, you can bring your own cake. We don't charge cakeage but you will have to serve yourself. Just like at home.

Can I bring extra food?

No extra food can be brought onto the premises. All our food is prepared in house by our qualified and passionate chefs. They work hard to make your food taste great so you can relax and enjoy your event. We'll even do the dishes for you.

Music, can I play my own? Can I organise live music?

Yes, in some cases you can.

However, this can vary depending on the area you are wanting to reserve. Please note that we are unable to provide technical support for live music and strongly recommend the engagement of an experienced sound engineer- we have a list of recommended sound engineers available upon request. Please read our function pack for further details including sound cut off times and DB limits.

Can I decorate?

Yes, you can!

We just ask that you leave the space as you found it on completion of your event. Some things can be left via arrangement.

Note: NO CONFETTI and NO GLITTER

We love the environment and it's a terror to clean up

When is my date and venue confirmed?

Once we have received confirmation of your initial deposit then the venue and date will be confirmed. Deposit prices vary depending which space you're using.

What if my desired date is not available?

If you are willing to consider a different location, we're sure we can find a space for your event. We are a family of four venues which all have a similar warm, inviting atmospheres and are closely located to each other.
